KATE D. HINKLE,

State Regent of Ohio.

By-Laws.

CINCINNATI CHAPTER OF THE DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION.

ARTICLE I.—MEMBERSHIP.

SEC. I.—Every application for membership shall be recommended and signed by three members of the Chapter who are personally acquainted with the applicant, or can vouch for the desirability of the applicant, before being received by the Registrar, and must in all cases be accompanied by the entrance fee.

SEC. II.—Members shall be elected as follows: Candidates must send their applications and proofs of membership qualifications to the Registrar, for which blanks in accordance with the form prescribed by the National Society shall be used. If found to be satisfactory, the application shall be referred to the Board of Management, who shall ballot upon it. The members of the Board shall not disclose to each other, nor to the members of the Chapter, the nature of their ballots. If elected, the application shall receive the endorsement of the Regent, Corresponding Secretary and Registrar, and be transmitted to the National Society for final action, but no candidate shall be elected without the majority consent of the Board of Management present.

SEC. III.—The fees shall be those prescribed by the National Society.

SEC. IV.—The sum of $3.00 covering the initiation fee and annual dues to the National Society for the current year, must accompany each application presented to this Chapter, but the payment of $25.00 at one time shall constitute a life membership, and exempt the member from further payment of dues, either to the National Society or to this Chapter.

SEC. V.—Members must notify the Recording Secretary of change of address, otherwise the last one given shall be considered sufficient.

ARTICLE II.—MEETINGS.

SEC. I.—A nominating committee shall be elected by informal ballot in the Chapter at a regular meeting, two months previous to the annual meeting, and shall consist of five members. The ticket reported by said committee, with at least two names for each office, must be printed and distributed among the members at the regular meeting previous to the annual meeting. The annual meeting of this Chapter shall be held the first Monday in June in each year. At this meeting the officers and five members (who together with the officers shall constitute the Board of Management) shall be elected by ballot. Any member is at liberty to substitute other names at the time of voting. Election shall be by ballot and shall be conducted by two tellers appointed by the Regent. All voting must be by persons present, made eligible by paying their dues. Delegates and alternates shall be elected at the regular meeting in January each year to represent the Chapter at the Continental Congress.

SEC. II.—The annual reports of the retiring officers will be read at the annual meeting.

SEC. III.—No member shall hold more than one office at the same time, and no one shall hold the same office more than two years in succession. No member of the Chapter shall be eligible as delegate to the Continental Congress more than two years in succession, and the Vice-Regent shall act as alternate for the Regent.

SEC. IV.—All officers and chairmen of committees shall make their report in writing.

SEC. V.—Seven members of the Chapter shall be considered a quorum for the transaction of business. The Chapter shall select “Roberts’ Rules on Parliamentary Law” as its authority for government.

ARTICLE III.—DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

SEC. I.—The duties of the Regent shall be to call and preside over all meetings of the Chapter, to see that the by-laws are enforced, to appoint all committees, of all which she shall be a member, ex-officio, excepting the nominating committee as mentioned in Art. 2, Sec. 1. She shall issue all credentials in the form of a certificate of election to all Chapter delegates to the Continental Congress, which shall be signed by herself and Recording Secretary, and to exercise a watchful care over the interests of the Chapter, that the objects of the Society may be properly accomplished. She shall open the meetings with prayer.

SEC. II.—The Vice-Regent shall in case of absence or disability of the Regent assume her position as prerogatives. In absence of both Regent and Vice-Regent they must report their inability to attend to the Board of Management, and the Board shall thereupon appoint one of its members to temporarily perform the duties of such office.

SEC. III.—The Recording Secretary shall keep a register of the members, and call the roll at all meetings, and together with the presiding officer shall certify to all acts of the Chapter. She shall record and preserve the minutes of all meetings of the Chapter, also prepare the annual report of the Society, a copy of which shall be forwarded to the Secretary-General of the National Society.

SEC. IV.—The Corresponding Secretary shall conduct all correspondence of the Chapter, give due notice of time and place of all meetings, notify officers of their election and committees of their appointment. She shall retain a copy of all letters written by her, and keep on file all letters and communications received. She shall notify the State Regent and Secretary General of election and appointment of all Chapter officers and delegates. She shall have charge of and distribute all pamphlets, rosettes and supplies, and perform such other duties as the Board of Management may direct.

SEC. V.—The Registrar shall keep a register of the names and dates of the election, resignation or death of the members, have the care and custody of all applications for membership and accompanying fees, and all proof of membership qualifications. She shall certify to the Board of Management the names of all eligible applicants, and forward to the Registrar of the National Society, applications which have been approved by the Board of Management, with the prescribed fees. She shall notify applicants of their election or rejection, and deposit with the Treasurer the fees for each elected applicant, and return all rejected applicants fees to said applicants.

SEC. VI.—The Treasurer shall receive all the dues for membership and receipt for same. All such dues must be collected by January 1st, each year. She shall have charge of all extra money raised for and belonging to the Chapter, pay all bills when properly endorsed, notify members who are in arrears of dues, keep an accurate account of all receipts and disbursements, and give to the Chapter an annual report of the same, when a committee shall be appointed to audit her accounts.

SEC. VII.—The Historian shall keep a record of all historical and commemorative meetings of the Chapter, and shall prepare for official publication, historical and biographical sketches of members, and prepare such other historical papers as the objects of the Society may demand. She shall be provided with a book as a family record in which the name of each Revolutionary patriot shall be entered, and the family line traced to the members claiming descent from him or her, the names of member's children, dates and places of birth, residence, and all historical particulars shall be entered that may be necessary to keep a record reference for future generations.

SEC. VIII.—The Board of Management shall consist of the officers and five members elected yearly by the Chapter. Their duty shall be to aid the Regent in recommending plans for promoting the objects of the Society, and to digest and prepare business, authorize the expenditure and disbursement of unappropriated money in the treasury for the current expense of the Chapter. They shall have power to fill vacancies in office until the annual meeting, and shall exercise a supervising care over the affairs of the Chapter, and perform such other duties as may be entrusted to them. At the meetings of the Board, five members shall constitute a quorum. They may establish a library and museum under such rules and regulations as they may adopt, to be in charge of the Custodian of the Chapter. They shall receive and make acknowledgment of all contributions, books, money and other property, and provide a book in which the name of all contributors may be entered for a permanent record.

SEC. IX.—The Board of Management shall meet upon call of the Regent, who is required to call a meeting at any time upon demand of three members of the Committee.

ARTICLE IV.—GUESTS.

The wives of Sons of the American Revolution and Sons of the Revolution who are eligible to membership, may be included in all social events of the Society in which their husbands are invited to participate, and husbands of members of this Society who are not eligible to membership in the Society of the Sons of the American Revolution and Sons of the Revolution, may be invited to participate in such events.

ARTICLE V.—ORDER OF BUSINESS.

1. Regent will open the meeting with prayer.
2. Reading of the Minutes.
3. Report of Treasurer.
4. Report of Corresponding Secretary.
5. Report of Registrar.
6. Report of Historian.
7. Report of Committees.
8. Unfinished Business.
9. Miscellaneous.
10. Calling the Roll.
11. Literary.

ARTICLE VI.—AMENDMENTS.

No part of the By-Laws shall be amended, altered or repealed, except at the annual meeting, and notice of such amendments or alterations must be presented at the previous meeting in writing.

NOTES OF INTEREST

TO THE

DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION.

The monthly meetings of the Daughters were held from May, 1893, to March, 1895, in the rooms of the Historical Society. The next year in the hall of the Public Library; the next six months in Sinton Hall, Y. M. C. A. October 5th, 1896, found them settled in the rooms of the Literary Club.

 WORK OF THE DAUGHTERS 1893-1896.

The Daughters decided to take as their special anniversary for raising their flags, January 1st, as that date commemorates the unfurling of the first American flag, 1776. Other flag raising dates, June 14th, July 4th, February 22nd and April 19th.

The Cincinnati Chapter has contributed toward the portrait of Mrs. Harrison for the White House, $24.00. Toward the Mary Washington Memorial at Washington, $24.00. Toward the rent of a needy daughter, $60.00.

Balance in Treasury November 2nd, 1896, $303.50.

Life members, Mrs. Perin, Mrs. Carroll, Mrs. Hinkle, Mrs. Cadwallader, Mrs. Thornton.

In November 1893, Mrs. Henry B. Morehead presented the Daughters with an elegant silk flag, regulation size. In May, 1894, Mrs. Morehead presented an historic gavel, made of magnolia wood from the last tree planted by George Washington at Mt. Vernon, also a piece of wood from the original Ft. Washington.

A delightful course of four historical lectures by Mrs. Mary E. Curwin was given in the parlors of the Burnet House, in the winter of 1894, for the benefit of the treasury.

A series of afternoon teas were given at private residences in the winter of 1895, to promote acquaintances and good will among the Daughters. Hostesses Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Buchanan, Mrs. Perin, Mrs. Doane and Miss Harrison. A special reception was given the State Regent, Mrs. Elroy M. Avery, of Cleveland, O., by Mrs. Hinkle, in November. Mrs. Avery read her bright paper, "We and our Ancestors."

January 6th, 1896, Mrs. Morehead announced the formation of the Ft. Washington Society, the Children of the American Revolution, with fifty-five members. It now numbers sixty-five.

April 19th, 1894, the Daughters were the guests of the Sons at a banquet at the St. Nicholas to celebrate the anniversary of the Battle of Lexington. Addresses by Judge Hunt, Mrs. Hinkle, General Asa S. Bushnell, John M. Newton and Mrs. Arnold.

January 1st, 1895, the Daughters held a reception at the St. Nicholas to commemorate the unfurling of the first flag in this country in 1776. This flag was the one with stripes of red and white, and a blue field with St. George's and St. Andrew's crosses where we have the stars. The Sons of the Revolution were the guests of the occasion. Addresses were made by Mrs. Morehead, Rev. Dudley Rhodes, Mrs. Hinkle and Miss Newton.

April 21st, 1895, the Daughters accepted an invitation from the Sons to a celebration of the anniversary of the Battle of Lexington, held at the Mt. Auburn Episcopal Church. Dr. Rhodes made an able address.

April 18th, 1896, the Daughters accepted an invitation from the Sons to a celebration of the anniversary of the Battle of Lexington, held at the Mt. Auburn Presbyterian Church. Rev. Dr. Curtis made an able address.

May 10th, 1895, the Daughters celebrated the anniversary of the Capture of Ticonderoga at the residence (by special request) of Madam Frédin. She gave a brilliant address on the Life and Services of General Lafayette, concluding with a fine recitation of the Marseillaise Hymn. A fair sum was realized by this entertainment for the treasury.

January 1st, 1896, the Daughters were invited to participate in a Colonial Ball given by the Sons of the American Revolution, the proceeds to go towards the purchase of "The Minute Man" of '76, by Francois Choppin.

May 12th, 1896, the Daughters joined the Society of Colonial Wars, Sons of the Revolution, Sons of the American Revolution and the Loyal Legion in celebrating the anniversary of the battle of Crown Point at the Portrait Loan Exhibit, Music Hall.

BARTLETT, JOSIAH. ¹

"Most noteworthy first signer of the Declaration of Independence after the President of Congress, John Hancock"; in 1765 was a member of the Legislature of New Hampshire, Governor Wentworth in 1766 conferred upon him judicial office, and November 11th commissioned him Lieutenant Colonel of the 7th Regiment of Militia: all this time he was engaged in most active opposition to the crown, became a member of the Committee of Safety, and a member of the convention called to elect delegates to the General Congress in Philadelphia in 1774; was chosen one of two delegates, but could not attend. However, continued his active attendance upon the New Hampshire Assembly, and the Committee of Safety at Exeter, N. H. At this time his judicial appointment was recalled by the Governor, and he was dismissed from his command "for his rebellious acts." In 1775 Colonel Bartlett assisted to raise, arm, clothe and pay soldiers, also to raise a special company to be ready for immediate service. August 23, 1775, was chosen to the Continental Congress, taking his seat September 16th, 1775; re-elected January 23d, 1776; same year appointed on a committee to prepare a form of confederation; December, 1776, re-appointed delegate to Continental Congress; was present with General Stark at the Battle of Bennington, having assisted in provisioning his army; August, 1778, delegate to Congress at Yorktown; 1780 appointed Chief Justice of Court of Common Pleas of New Hampshire; 1782 Associate Justice of Supreme Court of the State; 1788 Chief Justice, was chosen Senator; 1790 took his seat as President of the State of New Hampshire, holding the office until it passed out of existence; 1793 was chosen first Governor of his State, resigned in 1794. He was the first man to vote for the Declaration of Independence; was a member of the convention called to ratify the Constitution of the United States, and strenuously advocated its adoption. Died May 19th, 1795.

Connor, Mrs. Levietta Bartlett.

BATTLE, ITHIEL.

Was born at Milford, Massachusetts, 1751-52. Served as Sergeant in Captain Miles' Company, Bradley's Battalion, Wadsworth's Brigade, Connecticut State Troops, from September 10th to December 25th, 1776. Served as Lieutenant under Washington at Valley Forge.

Yergason, Mrs. Katherine Bartlett.

BAYLISS, PLATT.

At the beginning of the Revolution purchased large supplies for the army, and recruited the first company of soldiers raised in New Jersey; was commissioned Captain June 14th, 1776; promoted to the rank of Major, August 12th, 1776. At the battle of Long Island, Major Baylis cut through the English lines with three hundred men, bringing them inside Washington's lines. For this and other brave acts, Washington appointed him Quartermaster-General. Born near Baskingridge, Somerset County, New Jersey. Died May, 1777.
